...a fun ride of almost 23 years!

When I started Osprey Expeditions back in 2002, my dream was simple: to share the very best of Venezuela with fellow travelers. Over the years, we've found a formula that works—blending nature, local culture, adventure, and just the right amount of freedom. We believe this is the most authentic way to truly experience our beautiful country. Today, Osprey is powered by a passionate and dedicated team that's always ready to help, 365 days a year. We'd love to show you around. Come explore Venezuela with us!
